

TAPA on the move.

Since the summer, the TAPA Ensemble has been working on making the Cherry and Webb building at 275 Westminister Street our permanent home here in Providence, the Creative Capital.

Since we opened our doors in 2010, the TAPA Ensemble has dreamed of having a stable home for our community of Artist-Scholars. We have dreamed of a special place for our alumni to visit for years to come.

275 WESTMINSTER MAKES OUR DREAMS COME TRUE.

AT 275 WESTMINSTER, WE WILL TRULY BE A
CENTRAL FIGURE IN THE PROVIDENCE ARTS AND ACADEMIC COMMUNITY, AND WE AIM TO BE THE CAPITAL BUILDING FOR THE CREATIVE CAPITAL.

Interested in donating? There is a donate option on the TAPA website, at www.tapaprovidence.org/give-to-tapa. If you have another way to help (in-kind donations are appreciated too!), contact us at OnTheMove@TAPAProvidence.org.

All donations to TAPA are tax-deductible.

Follow the hashtag #TAPAontheMove on Facebook (TAPAProvidence), Twitter (tapastars), and Instagram (tapastars)